We strive to make our services better every day, so that you can get back to the tasks that are important to you. We are real people marketing to real people.

What is the Targeted Rapport Approach?

The Targeted Rapport Approach (TRA) is a “people-based” approach to Real Estate Investment (REI) marketing. It employs the use of digital marketing techniques to generate pre-qualified seller leads.

We source lists of property owner records, skip-trace each record to find property owner most recent contact information, and then contact each individual property owner using digital means. This process results in the delivery of warm, pre-qualified seller leads to our customers.

Benefits of the Targeted Rapport Approach

The chart below (Figure 1) illustrates how the Targeted Rapport Approach compares to the Direct Mail Method of marketing.

How to Get the Best Results Out of Your Campaign

There are three aspects of employing the TRA system that can make or break a campaign: list building, follow-up consistency and lead selectivity.

List Building. The first step in designing a successful campaign is to conduct a thorough analyses of your target areas. Factors such as median neighborhood sales price, unemployment rate, days on market, crime rates and school ratings are just a few of many factors that you want to consider when building a targeted list. More information about building your list can be found in the "How to Build Your List" resource document.

Follow Up Consistency. The second and most important aspect of employing the TRA system is follow-up consistency. Over 65% of deals using the TRA system are closed within 8-24 weeks after initial campaign deployment. Setting up and maintaining an accurate follow up system is pivotal in building a rapport with property owners and closing your next deal! If you don't have the time to follow-up on your own, not to worry. We offer affordable monthly maintenance plans that include additional calls and follow-up maintenance.

Lead Selectivity. Leads secured via the TRA method can be used for wholesale deals, fix and flips, buy and hold deals and listings/listing referrals. If you are limited to just one of the above-mentioned methods of closing deals, you could potentially be missing out on an opportunity to get your return on investment. We recommend adopting a “creative” deal making mindset for best results.

Individual campaign results can be dependent upon target area, list criteria, and sample size among other factors. As with any marketing regimen, you should plan to use the same system for a minimum of 4-6 months for best results.

What to Expect

Here are a few points to help you manage expectations for your campaign:

- Campaigns are completed within 10-21 days but could take up to 30 days
- Vumber is a third-party service that we are not partners of or affiliates of, and we cannot guarantee that Vumber will record logs or voice recordings accurately, if it all
- We will provide detailed call logs via CSV/Excel at the end of your campaign
- We record some calls and can provide voice recordings upon request, if available. Due to the high volume of calls being made, we cannot record every single outbound call
- Average amount of interested parties in a 21-day period is 10-40 leads
- We send over the information of every person expressing interest, no matter how motivated they seem. After delivery of the pre-qualified lead, it is the customers responsibility to negotiate and continue following up.
- Average response rates for text messages is 10-15% of total numbers in text campaign
- Average definitive response rates (number of homeowners explicitly expressing interest or non-interest) in a 21-day time is between 25-35%
- 65% of deals using the TRA system are closed within 4-24 weeks after initial campaign deployment
- Leads secured within the first 21 days are based solely upon the homeowners who respond to our contact attempts during that time; this DOES NOT imply that a list is bad or that there are no more leads in the list
- The customer MUST continue to contact and follow up with pre-qualified leads and list, post-campaign to obtain full benefit of using the TRA system
- Individual campaign results can be dependent upon target area, list criteria, and list size among other factors
- Number of deals is dependent upon factors such as individual investor experience and list size among other factors

Each customer is assigned a Customer Success Manager (CSM) who will oversee their campaign. All questions and concerns should be directed to your CSM. We are here to help you be successful!

Responsibility of the Customer

We are partners in the pursuit of generating leads for your business. We will do our job to the best of our ability, but there are still some things that we need your help with. Here are a few things that will help contribute to a successful campaign:

Set Podio notifications and follow up with leads in a timely manner

When leads are uploaded, it is best to contact potentially sellers back within 24-48 hours. After we have pre-qualified a lead, it then becomes the customers job to take on all follow up activities regarding that lead.

Continue to follow up with potential leads for at least 24 weeks after your campaign concludes

We understand that you are busy and follow up is not always easy to stay on top of post-campaign. 65% of deals using the TRA system are closed within 4-24 weeks after initial campaign deployment. It is extremely important that the customer continues with follow up efforts to get the full benefit of using this system.

We also offer comprehensive maintenance packages that allow you to capture all your leads and maintain positive relationships with your prospects, even if you don't have time to do it yourself.

Being responsive to your customer success manager

Your Customer Success Manager will be contacting you periodically to issue weekly reports, give updates on leads and to relay general campaign updates. It is very important to be as responsive as possible so that you don't miss any time sensitive information.

Ask questions

If you ever have questions about your campaign, leads, or lead generation in general, please feel free to ask! We want to help you be successful. A big part of that success comes from understanding our processes and managing expectations so that you can make informed decisions.
